

AFTMD Etiquette Guide

We are committed to ensuring AFTMD is a space in which people feel comfortable expressing and being themselves, personally and musically. We are all here to share music, dance, and community together - and to have fun!

- Respect people's boundaries, abilities and personal space
- Give and receive feedback politely and kindly
- If someone makes you feel uncomfortable, talk to a member of staff or Shelley Keimach, our 2024 Acadia Trad Steward - we are here to help!

When dancing...

- Anyone can ask anyone to dance
- Anyone can refuse a dance without needing to give a reason
- Be patient and gentle with new dancers

The Acadia Festival of Traditional Music & Dance is committed to welcoming people of all backgrounds, including but not limited to: racial, ethnic, religious, sexual orientation, gender identity, disability, socioeconomic and musical.
