

Connecting to the COA Network Under a Guest Account

Before you start: You need to connect to the COA Cloud wireless internet. In order to do this, simply follow these steps:

- Click on the wireless network icon in the taskbar.
- Select “coacloud” and select “Connect.”
- Your computer should then connect to the COA network.

Note: Please contact computer services if you plan on plugging your computer into a wired port in order to gain access to the COA network.

Step 1: Please open your browser and go to <http://connect>. A page, which looks like this, will pop up. Please read the policy before selecting “Accept.”

The screenshot shows the "College of the Atlantic" logo at the top with the tagline "life changing. world changing." Below the logo is a dark blue header with "Network Access Control" on the left and "Registration" on the right. The main content area is titled "Acceptable Use Policy" and contains a scrollable text box with the following text:

Utilizing college-owned computers and networks constitutes acceptance and understanding of the COA's IT Acceptable Use Policy. College of the Atlantic provides access to its computing and information resources as a service to students, faculty and staff to assist in learning and the exchange of knowledge. Every user is responsible for the integrity of these resources. All users must respect the rights of other users, respect the integrity of the physical facilities and controls, and respect all pertinent license and contractual agreements. It is the expectation of College of the Atlantic that all members of its community act in accordance with these responsibilities, relevant laws and contractual obligations, and the highest standard of ethics.

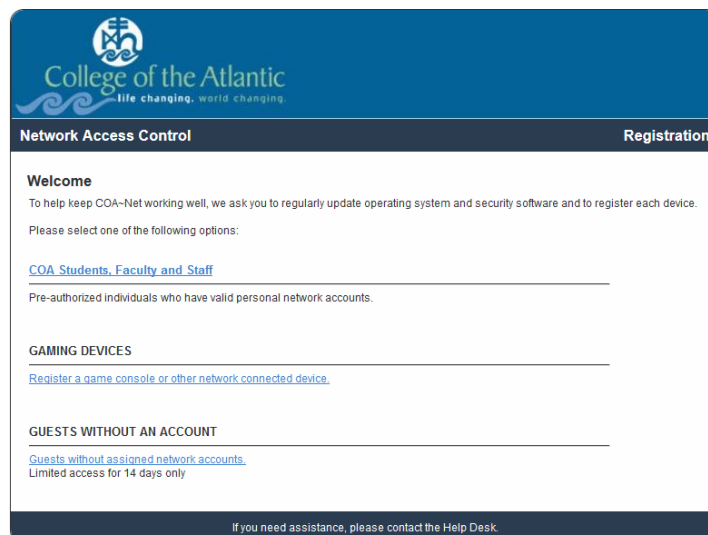

The following responsibilities apply to all users:

Use of Electronic Mail is a Privilege and Not a Right
Users are expected to promote an atmosphere conducive to work and study. All users have a right to privacy and freedom from libel and harassment. Users are expected to act responsibly, ethically and lawfully. Unacceptable uses of email or other computing and networking resources and facilities shall include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Misrepresentation of identity or source in the use of email is unacceptable.
- Using email or other computing or networking resources or facilities for any purpose that violates federal or state laws.

At the bottom of the scrollable area are two buttons: "Disagree" and "Agree". Below the scrollable area is a footer that says "If you need assistance, please contact the Help Desk."

Then, please click the hyperlink that says “Guests Without an Account.”

The screenshot shows the same "College of the Atlantic" logo and header as the previous image. The main content area is titled "Welcome" and contains the following text:
