

Things to bring to Acadia Trad

Here are some suggestions for you to consider when you're packing for the festival!

If you're staying on campus at COA, basic linens (mattress pad, pillow, sheets, lightweight blanket, and a towel) are provided for all campus dormitory rooms.

Things for your room & around campus:

- Extra towel
- Extra blanket (in case of cold nights)
- Hangers for the closet if you need/want some
- Small circulating or box fan (it could also be hot!)
- Slip-on shoes and a bathrobe for walking to the bathroom
- Quarters and laundry supplies if you plan to use the laundry rooms on campus
- Flashlight
- Bug Spray
- Ear plugs (especially if you're sharing a room or a light sleeper)
- Toiletries (including soap)
- Water bottle
- Rain coat / Umbrella (just in case!)
- Back pack / Gig bag (for carrying things to class or around campus)
- Cash (for raffle tickets, evening concessions, faculty merchandise)
- Snacks (dinner is early and nights are long!)
- Yoga mat
- Bathing suit
- COVID tests & masks (just in case!)

Things for your studies:

- Recording device for classes
- Extra strings / rosin / picks / etc. for your instrument(s)
- Pencils & notebook for taking notes in class
- Secondary instruments (whistle, bodhran, etc. to take advantage of afternoon workshops)
- Dance shoes (even if you're not signed up for dance, so you can join in social dancing!)
- Music stand (if you need one, not required and not all faculty will provide handouts)
